First Pres. Family,

Isaiah 43: 18-21

<sup>18</sup> "Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past.

<sup>19</sup> See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.

<sup>20</sup> The wild animals honor me, the jackals and the owls, because I provide water in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland, to give drink to my people, my chosen, <sup>21</sup> the people I formed for myself that they may proclaim my praise.

God is constantly doing a new thing in our world. Sometimes it is obvious, but often we do not perceive it. Isaiah 43 was a word of hope to the people of Israel held in Babylonian exile. God expressed intention to bring them home so that they may proclaim God's praise. As we celebrate Easter 2021, we also anticipate that God is doing a new thing in our congregation and the world.

In many ways our church has been held in exile during the past year by the COVID19 pandemic. Due to the pandemic, we have been scattered to our homes. We have been blessed to be able to have limited in-person worship services and have even managed to have limited Sunday School classes. Many of you have been participating online. Still, we miss seeing many of our friends and the many fellowship meals and activities that help to bind us together in Christ.

The percentage of our members who have been vaccinated is growing. There is hope today that as more and more people are vaccinated that we will be able to resume some of those activities we love. God releases the captives so that they may proclaim God's praise. We pray that indeed God is going to do a new thing in our midst during the coming months so that more of us may gather to proclaim God's praise. But will everyone return?

Several people have expressed concerns about what the church will look like when the COVID19 threat is diminished, they fear that many of the members who have not been coming to church because of the pandemic will not return and the church will be diminished as well. It is indeed easy to get out of the habit of coming to Church on Sunday morning. However, I have talked to many people who have been unable to attend, and they are very motivated to return as soon as the threat of illness is sufficiently diminished.

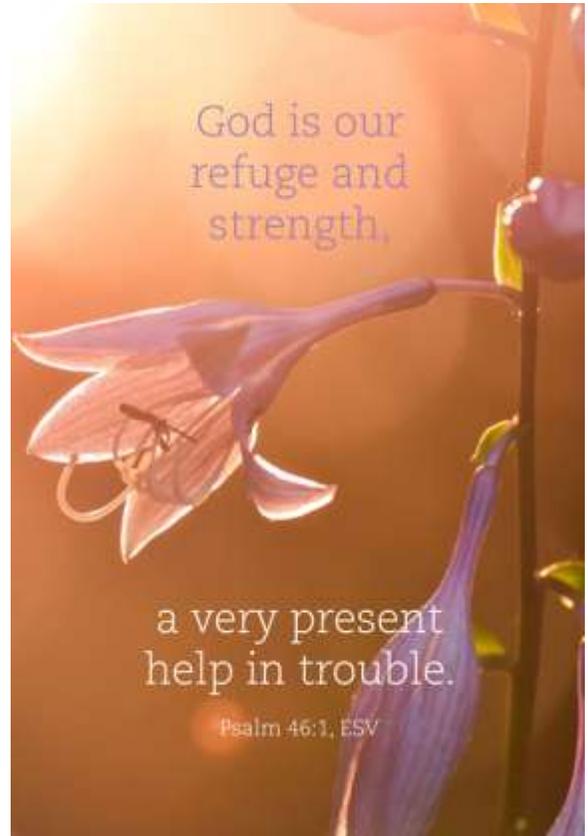

This pandemic struck at a difficult time for First Presbyterian Church of South Boston. The Church was already in a state of transition with the retirement of long-time pastor Russell Lee, then with the pandemic restrictions the church was unable to gather for in-person worship for months. The pandemic restrictions placed the church in a second transition. Transitions are temporary phases when we move from a past reality to a new reality. This could be an anxious time, but as we watch the hand of God at work doing a new thing our faith is deepened. We are comforted as God's love fills us with anticipation of the new thing God will create in our community.

~ Rev. Glenn Coleman, Interim Pastor

Easter 2021

A gift from our Savior whose blood set us free
 His suffering and agony, sadness for me.
 For we were the guilty, steeped within sin
 His death, Resurrection, victory He did win.
 Unworthy and broken we come to the Cross
 Remembering the sacrifice, anguishing loss.
 We gaze at His countenance, still filled with Grace
 We know we are forgiven, tears bathe our face.
 We cannot repay Him,
 His love gift is free,
 To accept Him as Savior is solace for me.
 So thank Him, give praise,
 Forgiveness is given,
 And on bended knee
 Thank God in His Heaven.
 Amen

Christ is My Light

4

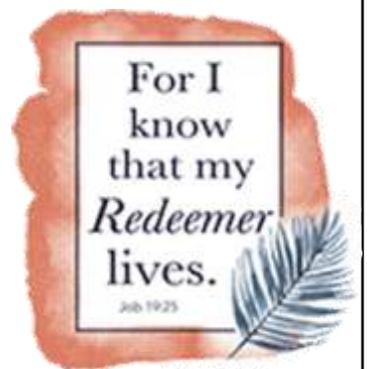

As we approach Easter, I cannot help but think about Christ and His sacrifice on my behalf and for all of us. As the pandemic has caused much commotion in the world, it seems that Christ is less and less in the conversations, and hearts of the people. People tend to be more fearful, hateful, and judgmental.

On the other hand, I personally have found more comfort and peace over the past year or two. In the scriptures we read "I am the way, the truth, and the life" John 14:6. He also has said, "I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life" John 8:12. I am ever grateful for my testimony of the divinity of Jesus Christ, for His life and example He set for me/us to know how to get through this life's struggles. He humbly pleads for us all to "Come unto [Him], all ye that ... are heavy laden, I will give you rest". What peace that brings my soul!

It is alarming to read studies that indicate the decline of Christianity over the past decades. One study reported that in the last 10 years, 30 million people in the U.S. have stepped away from believing in Jesus Christ, and the prediction is that twice as many will leave Christianity as embrace it. I know, and testify that Jesus is the Christ, He lives, He loves me and each one of us. He knows our trials and wants us to return to Him. But we must be diligent in faith and action.

I pray I will be more vocal and that my example will be more evident of my belief in Christ. I pray I will be a "light unto the world" and that all may recognize Christ in me. My desire is to follow the scripture that reads: "[I] talk of Christ, [I] rejoice in Christ, ... that [others] may know to what source they may look for a remission of their sins." May my light shine, with the light of Christ and the joy and peace He brings.

May this Easter bring us all peace, joy and love one for another, as we celebrate Christ's triumphant victory over death. Let us bring Him into our lives on a daily, hourly, and minute by minute basis. He is the only way to the Father, and I personally am grateful for my testimony and knowledge of His divinity, and I know that He lives today, and watches over all. ~ Sherolyn

PNC Update - As I reported last month, we are in another "search cycle" with the Vanderbloemen Search Group. We hope to have some new candidates to review within the next month. To date we have received around 300 PIF's (resumes) from PCUSA and Vanderbloemen has screened nearly 3000 potential candidates. The COVID19 pandemic has also added further complexity to our search process. Through all of this, we continue to accept that God has already selected our next pastor and that He will reveal His choice to us in His time. We have to truly "wait on the Lord" even when we want the answer right now. We covet your continued prayers as we move forward with the work that you have entrusted to us.

Grace and peace,

Don Cherry
